Larry has been a Co-Director of Westfield Theatre Group's Acting Out Youth Troupe, as well as a past drama Coach at John F. Kennedy Middle School in Enfield, CT. Larry is the founder of the camp and has been its Director for all of its years.

Co-Director: Tristan Andersen

Theatrical trained for 10 years. Tristan has a Bachelor's Degree in History from Westfield State College. This is his third year as Co-Director after having served as Assistant Director for four years.

What Will Theatre Camp Do For You?

We teach basic acting skills, stage movement, character development, voice projection, auditioning and emotional projection. We use a variety of theater games to teach these skills. Each activity is tailored to the ability of the student. Each session ends with a public workshop performance by the student.

Here's what some of our camper's parents have said: "I've noticed how much confidence my daughter has since she attended camp." "Our son showed us a side of himself we never saw, until we saw him on the stage, he's very funny!" "Our children enjoyed it so much and learned so much, that they are now doing plays at home in their free time." Former students can also be seen in "Cider House Rules" and recent Disney movies. A former student also appeared on Broadway in "Cats."
